

Troy Middle School Choir is heading to

Springfield, IL

May 1 - 3 , 2020

HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE:

Lincoln Home. Purchased by Lincoln and his wife, this home was built in 1839 as a one-and-a-half story cottage and later expanded by the Lincoln family to two-stories.

Abraham Lincoln Presidential Museum. Dedicated to the life & legacy of Abe Lincoln, this museum features hi-tech exhibits, interactive displays, multi-media programs, and a reproduction of the White House as it looked in 1861.

Old State Capitol. This structure is the fifth capitol built for the State of Illinois.

Illinois State Capitol. The building that houses both the executive and legislative branches of the IL government.

Lincoln Tomb. The final resting place of the United States' 16th President and his immediate family members.

Knights' Action Park. This 60-acre outdoor world of fun boasts a 50-tee driving range, two miniature golf courses, go-karts, batting cages, a Ferris wheel, and other rides... something for everyone!

Performance Opportunity at a Veteran's Service.
